OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLE

“The safest way to get what you want is to try and deserve what you want. It’s such a simple idea – it’s the golden rule, so to speak. You want to deliver to the world what you would buy if you were on the other end.”

“By and large, the people who have this ethos win in life. … And so the way to get it is to deliver what you’d want to buy if the circumstances were reversed.”

Charlie Munger, USC Law School Commencement Address, May 13, 2007
